

I don't see why they aren't able to offer news and weather or any kind of music. We pay for the service and they have the technology to offer it so why not. It is a freedom of AMERICA to choose who we want to provide us with entertainment and news. It just happens to be they are one we pay not to advertise as much as that junk on your every day radio.
Thanks! Concerned AMERICAN.